Burn's Society Program

Greetings All,

Well the Holidays are fast approaching and we will soon be bringing out the heavy coats for winter, o.k. maybe just a light jacket after all it is Houston. Regardless of the weather it is time to start getting ready for the Burn's supper.

This months H & T meeting will feature Scottish country dancing. If you ever wanted to participate in the dances at the Burn's supper here is your chance to learn the steps, without several hundred people watching you.

We also have the Kirking of the Tartans scheduled for November 28th and I hope to see you all there. Please see page two of the newsletter to see what other local events are going on this month for St. Andrews day and the Texas Day of the Scots.

On a personal note, I would like to send out a message this month to all the officers , committee chairs, members, and volunteers that keep H&T running smoothly. Your hard work and dedication does not go unnoticed and in this time of Thanksgiving I want to say how much I appreciate you.

Thank you,

Aaron C. Buchanan
Chieftain

Editor's Review of Jim Malcolm Concert

Sharon and I attended and represented the Heather and Thistle Society at the recent performance of Scottish singer Jim Malcolm at the Chocolate Buddha in Pattison, Texas. The Chocolate Buddha is a house in the country which features performances of folk singers in the back yard of Sandy Buller and his wife Janet. They have a very nice stage set up in their large back yard. The performers are all professional musicians from all over the world that perform their own music. At 6pm, there is a potluck dinner and at 7pm the music begins. There is a $10 per person suggested donation. We did not attend the dinner and arrived about 15 minutes late. Sharon and I were dressed in informal Scottish attire and we were a big hit amongst the other guests. The duet Butterfly Sky opened the concert for a short set and then Jeff Talmadge, a solo performer sang. It was a cold night and it was decided that the main event performer, Jim Malcolm, would be moved inside the house. There were about 30 people in attendance and we were cozily seated in the den of the house. Jim Malcolm began his performance, playing the acoustic guitar and harmonica, and singing a combination of his original compositions and other popular Scottish folk music. Between songs Jim entertained us with jokes and commentary about the history of each song. His singing voice reminded me of the popular artist Gordon Lightfoot. His skill on the guitar and harmonica was evident. It was a thoroughly enjoyable evening. Mr. Malcolm was very cordial and engaging during the break and after the performance and even took a hefty tittle from my sporan flask. I heartily recommend listening to Jim Malcolm. I purchased his latest CD and Sharon and I will have it playing at the refreshment table before the meeting and during the break. Jim Malcolm's website is www.jimmalcolm.com. The Chocolate Buddha website is www.chocolatebuddha.org.

Heather & Thistle Society Statement And Membership Information

The Heather and Thistle Society was founded in 1953 by Scots living in Houston who wished to “cultivate an interest in and fond recollections of Scotland, its history and traditions, its literature and ideals, its minstrelsy and song, its customs and amusements; and to provide opportunities for good fellowship and social contact through typically Scottish functions, so that the blessing of our Scottish culture may never die in our new homeland”.

The Heather and Thistle Society meets 10 times a year, September through June. Programs include music, singing, lively lectures, slide shows and movies about Scotland. We are an organization that promotes our Scottish heritage, in various ways.

The Heather and Thistle Society’s monthly newsletter, “The Houston Scot”, is published from September through June. Original articles, information about Scottish or related events are welcome and should be sent to the editor, Jim Monteith, at 15703 Mound Road, Hockley, Texas 77447 or 936-931-2588 or jmonteith@ev1.net.

Membership in the Heather and Thistle Society is open to all with an interest in Scottish heritage and culture. Annual dues are $15 for an individual and $20 for a family membership. Applications for membership may be obtained from our website at:

<http://heatherandthistle.org/documents/membership.doc>

Dues are due at the beginning of the fiscal year, March 1. Completed applications and membership fees should be mailed to: Mrs. Eileen Graham Moore

8910 Sandstone, Houston, Texas 77036-6132

For membership information please call Eileen at 713-774-0314.
