The Houston Scot

Chieftain's Letter,

Happy Thanksgiving to all! This time of year I always remember my sweet mother-in-law who managed to figure out 1001 ways to prepare the leftovers from Thanksgiving. I extend warm wishes to all our members as we begin the holiday season.

I want to thank both The Houston Highlanders and Jay Dooling for making our October meeting special. We started our program year with the wonderful sound of bagpipers. Jay gave us insight into visiting Scotland's Celtic neighbor, Ireland. Everyone enjoyed the beautiful slides. Our members were treated to a special evening.

By the time you receive this newsletter, we will have celebrated our Kirking service and catered luncheon at St. Stephen Presbyterian Church. We are grateful to the Reverend Patricia Clark and everyone at St. Stephen who worked so very hard to make this a very memorable event. I appreciate all of you who were able to attend. My special thanks goes to steadfast member, Eileen Moore, who personally made the Scottish boutonnieres for everyone. It was our intention to make this service meaningful for all parishioners at St. Stephen, and we thought the non-Scottish folks would enjoy wearing "the plaid and thistle." Thanks to Jack Hume for sharing his church with us.

November 28th Meeting. Is everyone prepared to learn a reel or two? Get out those dancing shoes. RSCDS is going to do their best to prepare us for The Burns Supper. Our program will combine a demonstration and dance lessons. Bring a partner and a neighbor or two. RSCDS promises to help those of us with two left feet to be on our toes at the end of the evening. Remembering all may be the challenge.

Future Programs. Next month we will have our annual Christmas Party and "White Elephant" exchange. Start thinking about the little gift to share. The Burns Club will present our program in January. Mark Monroe has generously offered to sponsor a music program by Jim and Margaret Fox that covers Texas music during the period 1821-1865. We will be working on a date for that performance.

The Burns Supper. If you have not ordered your Burns Supper tickets, do so immediately. Tickets will go on sale to the general public on December 1st. If you need a ticket form, go to our web site: heatherandthistle.org and download the ticket form which is under the caption Robert Burns.

Pantry Donations. I was delighted to discover that several members brought donations for Houston's food bank. Thank you very much. Thanksgiving reminds us of our many blessings, and I encourage all of you to remember those who need our prayers and help.

God bless our Veterans!

North America Burns Federation Conference

The Burns Club subsection of The Heather & Thistle Society wishes to host the 2008 North America Burns Conference in Houston. The Burns Club members have voted to support this idea, and have committed to provide the necessary time and effort to support this conference. The Heather and Thistle Society is the registered member of the Burns Federation and therefore must make the formal offer to host. H&T will discuss and vote on this proposal at the November 28, 2005 meeting.

Jay Dooling presented his Ireland program.

Scottish Rite Dormitory

At The University of Texas in Austin, in 1920, it was recognized that there was a lack of suitable housing for young women who were attending. Samuel P. Cochran, the Executive Head of the Scottish Rite Masonry in Texas asked the Scottish Rite Bodies in Texas to donate the necessary funds to build a dormitory. In 1922, the dormitory opened, a gift of Scottish Rite Masons in tribute to, and in interest of, aspiring young women. The Charter states the dormitory was built to provide a home-like atmosphere for the young women attending UT at Austin.
